FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

OVERNIGHT FULL CLOSURE OF NORTHBOUND U.S. HIGHWAY 101 IN PISMO BEACH NEXT WEEK

PISMO BEACH – The northbound #2 (slow) lane of U.S. Highway 101 at Spyglass Drive will be closed on Sunday, October 27 at 8 pm, followed by a full overnight closure of all northbound lanes beginning at 11:45 pm until 4 am on Monday, October 28, to allow Caltrans to re-pave the bridge deck.

During the full closure, motorists headed north will exit at the U.S. Highway 101 Spyglass Drive off-ramp and re-enter the highway at the northbound Spyglass Drive on-ramp. Motorists may encounter delays and are encouraged to use alternate routes. The California Highway Patrol (CHP) will be present to ensure the safety of motorists and highway workers.

The highway will be open before the beginning of the morning commute.

Caltrans reminds motorists to move over and slow down when driving through highway construction zones.
